NO. 1.

TENNESSEE TO BE HERE NEXT SATURDAY!

TIGERS PREPARING FOR A VICTORY

The husky bunch from the University of Tennessee play the Tigers here this Saturday. Last year we defeated them by the close score of 3 to 0. This year they are coming with the idea that "revenge is sweet." We held them last year and we can do it again. But you must do your part if you expect the team to do theirs. Play fair. Come out Saturday afternoon and put up the best exhibition of the clean old Tiger spirit ever seen here. What do you care for a little sore throat? You don't need your sweet little voice here, anyway. Come out and make these old hills around resound with cheers and yells.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE 1916

By glancing at the following schedule, one may see just what Coach Hart's bunch of huskies are up against for the rest of the season. If you expect them to win, come out and do your part.

University of Tenn., Campus, Oct. 14.
Auburn at Auburn, Oct. 20.
University of S. C., Columbia, Oct. 26.
V. M. I., Richmond, Nov. 11.
Citadel, Orangeburg, Nov. 16.
P. C. of S. C., Campus, Nov. 23.
Davidson, at Charlotte, Nov. 30.

FRESHMAN GIRLS WEAR RIBBON AND BELLS AS CLASS BADGE

Freshman girls at convocation will each wear conspicuously suspended from the arm a green ribbon, a little doll. Freshmen girls will also greet sophomore girls with military salutes when members of these two classes meet.

These are some of the regulations imposed by the sophomores on the newcomers. Miss Louise Richmond and Miss Alice Kemp, representatives of the sophomores have explained the rules of conduct to the freshmen and have given them their badges. These consist of green ribbons to be worn around the neck with a tiny bell attached. Wherever goes the freshmen girl there must also go the ribbon and the bell and there is just now a pleasant tinkling in the corridors and in the classrooms.—The New Hampshire.

CLEMSON WINS FROM FURMAN

BAPTISTS PROVED HARD TO DOWN

In our initial game of the season with Furman on Saturday, September 30, we were victorious over the Baptists by the score of 7 to 6. The Furman team made their touchdown in the first quarter but they failed to kick goal. In the last quarter the Tigers commenced to fight in earnest and the result was a touchdown. In this quarter Harris punted to Furman's thirty yard line but the ball was fumbled by a Furman player and rolled off, the ball being recovered by a Clemson man. By a few end runs Harris took the ball to Furman's fifteen yard line when Witsell called the signals that set the men for a forward pass. Banks shot the ball to Harris who darted behind the Furman goal line and caught it from above his head. The students ran wild, when on top of this, "Crump" Brown kicked goal, winning the game by one point. A few more minutes of play were left and the Tigers seemed to be getting stronger for they were rushing it over Furman at every down when the whistle blew and stopped the play.

Starting off bad when "Buck" Hart kicked off only 15 yards, the Tigers were rushed off their feet in the first quarter and it was not long before Furman had the ball over the line. Towards the last when the ball was close to Clemson's goal the Tigers made a very stubborn fight but the big Furman players rushed the pigskin over.

The Tigers were out-weighted at every position, but they fought hard, contesting every inch of ground. Our backfield played an excellent game and when they had the ball it was sure to advance. Most of these gains were made by "Bill" Harris, who made several end runs for twenty or twenty-five yards.

One important point about the game that in a way had an effect on the score was the fact that both teams were coached by men who played on the same team and were coached by the same man. This proved in some cases to be an advantage and in other cases a disadvantage to the players. There are several other

CLEMSON COULD NOT HOLD HEAVY CRACKER LINE

In a clean hard fought game Clemson met her first defeat of the season at the hands of Georgia—score 26 to 0. Though outweighed by fully twenty pounds to the man, the Tigers played a great game from beginning to end. They simply lacked the weight to hold their hefty opponents. The game was characterized on both sides by a great deal of kicking, sometimes on the second and third down. Harris booted the ball with his old time form, sending it every time from thirty-five to forty yards. Our men were especially good on running down on punts, usually downing the man in his tracks. Georgia worked forward passes to good advantage. Gee, Wiehl, Banks, Harris, and Major deserve especial credit for the way they played the game.

Neville, Dezzendorf, and Hutchinson made all the important gains for Georgia, Neville making three touchdowns and Hutchinson going sixty-five yards through the line for the final touchdown in the last quarter. Coleman kicked the two goals from touchdowns for Georgia.

FIRST QUARTER

Harris kicked off to Georgia. Neville received and returned the ball twenty yards. Reynolds gained five yards around left end. Reynolds went one yard through line. Georgia penalized off side. Georgia tried forward pass which was broken up by Harris. Coleman kicked sixty yards to Witsell, who returned ball to Clemson's twenty-three yard line. Witsell carried ball to thirty yard line. Third down, Harris kicked to Dezzendorf, who brought the ball back twenty-five yards. Georgia's ball on forty yard line. Georgia fumbled but recovered, losing five yards. Reynolds gained twelve yards. Reynolds lost five yards. Dezzendorf gained three yards. Ball on Clemson's twenty yard line. Neville passed twelve yards to Dezzendorf, who fumbled but recovered. Neville gained four yards. Neville gained two yards more. Dezzendorf gained ten yards. Neville gained three yards. Neville

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY

DR. JOHN E. WHITE TO CONDUCT SERVICES

Dr. John E. White, President of Anderson College, and Pastor of the Baptist Church in Anderson, will be here for ten days beginning Monday night for the purpose of conducting a series of Evangelistic services.

Dr. White is a native of North Carolina, a graduate of Wake Forest where he was a prominent athlete, being captain of the football team. He has conducted evangelistic campaigns in a number of Colleges and Universities of the country, and is in great demand for this kind of work. We are indeed fortunate in having him with us for a few days.

Services will be held in one of the churches in the afternoons, and in the chapel in the evenings at 7:00 o'clock.

LYCEUM ATTRACTION

The first number on the lyceum course will be given Saturday evening by the Apollo Concert Company. This is one of seven or eight excellent numbers to be presented this year.

A special feature of the course will be the greatest exhibition of magic ever given in this section.

If you want to know what Aluminum Percolaters are good for, ask Blish Breland.

"FISH" WITSELL
Quarterback

This is Witsell's first year as regular quarterback, but his training in the backfield last year is showing up well and he is running his team in great style.

"BILL" HARRIS
Halfback

Three years on the team and getting better all the time. "Bill" has played excellent ball in both games this year, and it was his star catch of a forward pass that defeated Furman.

CAPT. "DOPIE" MAJOR
Halfback

This is "Dopie's" fourth year in the backfield and he well deserves to be captain of the team. Fast and works his head well. He has been "bunged up" but is "coming strong" now.

CLEMSON'S FOOT-BALL TIGERS FOR 1915-16.

Of the above squad we have lost several good men. Magill, Suggs, Randle, Cannon, Littlejohn and Manager Harrall of the bottom row graduated. Among the others we miss Cox, McConnell, "Red" McMillan, "Pete" Daly, Jones, "Bob"

Finley, McFaddin and Wilson. "Fish" Witsell, "Bill" Harris, "Dopie" Major, "Mutt" Gee, Adams, Nimitz, the two Brandons, "Crump" Brown, "Dingle" Banks, Sams, Reynolds, Cannon, and States Finley are all back on the gridiron and filling well the places left vacant by the others. "Dutch" Wiehl, who was out of the game last year on account of a bad ankle, was absent when the picture was made, but is back now and playing excellent ball.

EDITORIAL

We have no idea of apologizing for the lateness of this, the first issue of The Tiger. But owing to the fact that several alumni have written asking about it, and that subscribers here may understand the delay, we submit the following reasons: Clemson opened two weeks later than usual this fall and it is impossible to make up two weeks' work, especially at the beginning of school when things are rather unsettled and so many of the old men are busy helping the "Rats" get straight (?). Also, the basis upon which The Tiger is run was changed quite a bit, and it was absolutely necessary that it should "see it's way clear" before beginning another lap. Now that it has the proper support, we hope to make it the best ever published here, and second to none in the Southland.

THE TIGER'S POLICY

In this our initial issue we wish to state the policy that The Tiger has adopted for the coming year.

For the benefit of the Freshmen, and those of the upper classmen who should know but do not, we will say that The Tiger was established by the Class of '07, primarily as an athletic and student body organ. Since then it has been printed every year, this being the beginning of the twelfth volume. One year ago the management was changed and a staff composed of the same number as are now on it were chosen. The paper was made the official organ of the Clemson Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association and of the Clemson Alumni Association, and it is so now.

We shall endeavor this year to cover in the best manner possible, every phase of student activity, news of different alumni, and happenings on the hill. Athletics will, of course, receive more attention than any other phase. It will follow Clemson on the football field, the track, the tennis courts, the diamond, the basketball courts, and in all athletics. College spirit in all lines will be fostered. Everything that is of interest to cadets, that we can get hold of, will go in.

We intend giving a square deal, and expect one. We are going to try to keep up with the various activities, but it is impossible for five men to know everything that happens, and it's up to you men to help. Any contribution will be greatly appreciated.

If you have any kick to make, make it to the Editor. He's the goat. But remember what the staff is up against, and do your part to make The Tiger what it should be, and one that you will be proud of.

EXCHANGES

To the present date we have received the following college and school publications:

The Spokesman.
Winthrop Weekly News.
The Connecticut Campus.
The Davidsonian.
The Cadet.
The New Hampshire.
Orange and Blue.
The Old Gold and Black.
The Hornet.
The Red and Black.

These exchanges are welcome as are any others, and we are glad to have them on our list.

Cadets are at liberty to peruse any of the exchange publications at any time.

It is stated on good authority that "Midget" McHugh misses "Blacksmith" very much these days.

If it is stationery, we have it—Tiger Head and Clemson Seal. Tallevast & Felder.

SENIORS FALL BEFORE

SCRUB-FACULTY

Tuesday evening a small crowd composed of faculty-men, residents at the hill, and seniors were entertained by a game of basketball in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The two teams were faculty and seniors.. The line-up is as follows:

Faculty		Seniors
Ward	C.	Hutson
Cannon	L. G.	Robertson
Young	R. F.	McDermid
Norris	R. G.	Harris
Holtzendorff	L. F.	Schirmer

The game was snappy although neither of the teams had any previous team practice. There were frequent bursts of applause from the gallery, which came mostly, we think, from the seniors.

For the faculty, Holtzendorff and Norris starred, while the lights of Cannon, Ward, and Young were not by any means dim.

For the seniors, Schirmer and Harris were the outstanding illuminations. Hutson, McDermid and Robertson made the faculty realize that they were playing a basketball game, also.

The faculty, probably on account of their superior wisdom (?), more than anything else, were able to outplay the seniors. We think that if there were more of these, we might call them amateurs and has been contests, in all phases of athletics, there would possibly be more interest aroused. In that we might find some body, who otherwise might never be discovered. After much consideration the score was agreed upon as twenty to eight, in favor of the faculty.

A. J. Brown, '12, was on the campus Monday, Sept. 25.

C. H. Albrecht, "Chaps", '16, was on the campus Sept. 30.

D. T. Duncan, "Governor", '16, was on the campus for the Clemson-Furman game on Sept. 30. He left here Friday, Oct. 6, for Cornell.

W. J. Hunter, "Joe", '14, was on the campus for the football game Sept. 30.

G. R. Tyler is now engaged in the S. C. militia. He is expecting to be back with us after Christmas to complete his Architectural course.

D. J. Watson, "Peat", '15, was on the campus for the Clemson-Furman game.

J. R. Marshall, '09, is now on the campus taking a special course in dairying.

Sam Hill, '04, was on the hill Thursday, Oct. 5. He is now engaged in Government work at Honolulu.

D. G. O'Dell, '16, is now working with Anderson Fertilizer Works, Atlanta, Ga.

Geo. M. Anderson, '13, is at Tallulah, La., where he is engaged in Government agricultural work.

J. Miley, "The College Lad", '15, is teaching school at Tilman, S. C.

R. F. Wright, '15, better known as Frank, writes that he is holding down a good job with Westinghouse at Wilkesburg, Penn. He sends best regards to the corps, and wishes that he could be back among us.

J. L. Seal, '13, "Jimmie", was back on the campus Sunday. After two years as student-tutor at Ames, Jimmie is now located in Florence on the State wilt-resistant work.

D. H. Banks, '16, after spending the summer at home, has taken up graduate work at Cornell. "Dingle" was well known here, being the winner of the Norris medal, several minor medals for oratory and debate, and having the distinction of being captain of the best-drilled company.

D. F. Folger, '16, is Y. M. C. A. Secretary at Auburn. "Dag" reports that the school is not as strict as ours, but that we have much the better time. Folger was president of the Y. M., Business Manager of Taps, '16, and popular with almost everybody in college here, and we feel sure that he will make a success of his work.

It is of much interest to know that Burch, H. L., better known as "Stud", has taken the advice of one of our professors and has become "involved" in matrimony. He is now located on R. 1, Rentz, Ga., and is engaged in the livestock business.

Agnew, E. H., '16, Major of the 1st Battalion and Editor of The Tiger last year, is holding down a responsible position in Americus, Ga. He is Commandant of Cadets at Americus High School, and also teaching Chemistry, Physics and General Science. "Major" is well fitted for his job, having been a shark in Science and having held down the job as Commandant of the Corn Club boys here this summer most satisfactorily. Following are a few specimens of the numerous questions asked Agnew by some of his youngsters that illustrate slightly the kind of job it was.

1. Do we have to pay for the laundry lists?
2. Does a man have to pay taxes in S. C. when he's 18 years old?
3. Is the barber shop free?
4. Mister, can we lock our doors?
5. What kind of cow is that Jersey yonder?
6. Can I shine my shoes?
7. Can I get out of drill today?—It's my birthday.

"The Hornet" from Furman is highly elated over their "near-victory" over the Tigers, and well it may be after the overwhelming defeat of last year. Furman certainly has a good team and well deserves to win. The Furman supporters non, la beside themselves with joy until the bottleneck—then their lower jaws others we McMillan,

IN OTHER COLLEGES

Davidson seems to be depending again on speed and grit to pull her through the football season. She rarely has a heavy team and this year is no exception. With Steve and Bob Walker, Keisler, Black, Capt. White, McKinnon and others of last year's squad back at their old positions, and a number of other promising men out, she expects to put a winning team into the field. The game in Charlotte on Thanksgiving between the Tigers and Davidson should be a hot one.

The total enrollment of Davidson this year approximates four hundred students. This is a splendid number—more than they have had for several years, and they are expecting the best work in the history of the college.

Wofford opened its sixty-second year on the 20th of September. Approximately 275 is the total enrollment, which is the largest in the history of the school. Of this number, 83 are Freshmen and the remainder is about equally divided between the three upper classes.

"The Cadet" from V. P. I. contains a bright outlook for the football team there. A number of old men are back on the squad and several new men look good.

V. P. I. is scheduled to play Clemson in Richmond on Nov. 11, so this should interest us.

ASSISTANT COACH SECURED

When it became known that "Jule" Carson, who had been selected as assistant coach for football this year, would not be able to return here, the Athletic Association got busy and a few weeks ago secured Mr. W. G. Morris of Washington, to assume the duties of assistant coach of the football team.

"Country" Morris as he is known all over the North is a graduate of Maryland Agricultural College. He played at this college for two years on the Varsity squad. In his last year he was captain of the team and they were champions of the state. After leaving Maryland College he went to Washington and acted as Assistant coach to Head Coach Hart who was then coaching Washington Tech High School. This team won the championship that year. Coach Morris is a backfield man, while Coach Hart is a line man. This gives Clemson a good pair of coaches. Both of them keep after their men in a lively way and no time is lost. The men on the football squads have already expressed themselves as being well pleased with the new assistant coach who has "a pat on the shoulder" for them all.

While Coach Morris will be the assistant coach for football, he will be head coach for baseball at Clemson this year, and basketball also, it is understood. He not only was a star in football at his college but played better base ball than he did football. He played on the baseball and basketball teams for two years, getting in all of the important games.

"Country" Morris comes to Clemson with a good reputation as a coach. For the last three years he has been manager of the Martinsburg base ball club in the Blue Ridge League. While he was manager of this team they were champions one year and came out second the other two, this being a good record. He should make Clemson a good coach in every thing that he undertakes. When he left Washington the Washington Star paid several very nice compliments about his career in the North. Although a Virginian by birth he has been living most of his life in Washington.

Working with these two coaches are two former Clemson stars. "Buck" Pressley, who played with the Tigers a few years in the backfield, is a professor in the Agricultural department at Clemson but spends his evenings out on Riggs Field coaching the Freshmen. "Mutt" Cannon who played star ball for the Tigers in the line last year is also working here in the same department, and is doing the same thing in the evenings. These two men are fast getting the husky bunch of Freshmen in shape.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

On September 27, 1916, the first meeting of the class of 1919 was held for the purpose of electing class officers for the ensuing year. The following were elected:

W. M. Wallace of Union, President; J. S. Watkins of Columbia, Vice-President; D. Haltiwanger of Columbia, Sec'y and Treas.; W. H. Washington of Ware Shoals, Historian.

The class and school expect unusual efficiency from these officers, and we feel sure that their expectations will be fulfilled.

points about the game that are interesting. The work of the umpire and referee was not as good as it could have been. Clemson was penalized time and again five yards for offside, and in one instance we were penalized fifteen yards for what was called roughing on the part of Harris when he backed up some opposition. The old Tiger spirit and determination was present throughout the game.

It is no easy task to pick out the stars of the game, for every man on both sides worked hard. The gains of the Furman team which were through our line, were mainly the work of captain Grissett and Spear, the two half backs of the visitors. For Clemson, the work of "Bill" Harris in the backfield, both on the defense and offense, was perhaps the outstanding feature. Along with Harris' work, the game that "Buck" Hart and Harry Harmon played deserve especial mention. It must be said though that the Furman team has a very strong line with their heavy men. Their backfield is also very fast with Drake as quarter and Grissett and Spear the two backs.

The line-up of the two teams were as follows:

CLEMSON		FURMAN
Poole	L. E.	Wood
Hart	L. T.	Watson
Harmon	L. G.	Jeter
Neimitz	C.	Payne
Hardin	R. G.	Rice
Still	R. T.	Shirley
Adams	R. E.	Coleman
Witsel	Q. B.	Drake
Harris	L. H.	Spear
Major (Capt.)	R. H. Grissett (Capt.)
Gee	F. B.	Weston

Substitutes—For Clemson: Brown for Hardin, Banks for Major, and Wehl for Adams. For Furman: McManaway for Drake.

SENIORS ELECT OFFICERS

A few days after the opening of school the Class of 1917 held a very important meeting, the object of which was to elect officers to steer the class through the last lap of its course. The results were as follows:

President—Sam Littlejohn.
Vice-President—Jimmie Hunter.
Sec. and Treas.—Chalmers McDermid.
Historian—W. E. Hunter.
Poet—M. M. Brice.
Chaplain—A. R. Sellars.

Littlejohn was President of this class last year and filled the chair most acceptably. We are fortunate in having this splendid set of men to pilot us.

FACULTY-STUDENT ADVISORY SCHEME GAINING POPULARITY

Prof. Doggett entertained some of the Freshmen from Anderson County at his home on Monday evening, in the furtherance of the student-faculty advisory scheme. This movement seems to be gaining in popularity and bids fair to be one of the most successful methods of bringing the faculty and students into closer contact with each other. The seniors responded nobly to the call issued to them by Dr. Riggs, and they are succeeding in giving the Freshmen a great deal of good advice which a young fellow needs in his freshman year at college.

HAYNE SOCIETY

The Hayne Literary Society held its first meeting in this session Sept. 29, 1916. Mr. Blair and Mr. Bruce both gave excellent talks to the new men on the value of literary society work. Many new men were enrolled and as some of them have already been members of literary societies, the Hayne bids fair to become the society in the college. It was decided by the members to give a prize to the man getting the highest number of new men for the society. As there was no program the society was adjourned by order of the president, Mr. J. D. Blair.

PRES. RIGGS TAKES IMPORTANT TRIP THRU SOUTHERN STATES

Dr. Riggs was away from college the whole of last week on a trip through several of the southern states, as a member of a committee appointed by Governor Manning to investigate conditions in the states where the boll-weevil has been, with a view to getting South Carolina ready for the arrival of this pest.

This group is made up of several prominent men of South Carolina. They found conditions very serious in many of the states that they visited, due to the presence and work of the much-dreaded boll-weevil. These men have prepared a report to be issued to the people of this state and it is considered by Washington authorities to be one of the most important ever issued along this line. It is very interesting and will be printed in full in this paper as soon as possible.

AUBURN CLOSES FIVE-YEAR CONTRACT WITH TECH

It has been announced by athletic authorities at Auburn that a five year contract has been closed with the athletic authorities of Georgia School of Technology, which insures the staging of a football game between Auburn and Tech in Atlanta on Thanksgiving day. The contract begins with the season of 1916 and runs through the football season of 1920.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES

After much consideration on the part of Col. Jones and consultation between him and the co-operative committee of the senior class, the following privileges and duties expected in return by the college were put before the seniors.

Wearing of cap cords.

Visiting other seniors in barracks between reveille and 11 P. M. when no underclassmen is in the room.

Privileges of the campus during study hours.

To visit the towns of Seneca, Central, Pendleton and Calhoun without special permission when the rest of the Corps are released from quarters and to go anywhere within a radius of five miles from the Administration Building when the rest of the Corps are released from quarters.

The members of the Senior Class in taking advantage of these privileges agree on their honor to carry out the following conditions:

Not to take undue advantage of these privileges, to report all unauthorized visiting in barracks between Long Roll and Reveille, to prevent disorder by students whenever it might occur, to prevent excessive, unjust or brutal hazing; to report all offences which are violations of honor, such as stealing, cheating, false official statements, taking undue advantage of the rights or of the senior privileges; to do their duty in their power to give moral support to the sentiment that cadets on duty should carry out their duty without question, including the reporting of other cadets where such reports are part of the duty, and to discourage the sentiment that the cadet on such duty has any voice in the matter other than to make the necessary reports in carrying out his duty.

In other words to do everything in their power to eliminate unauthorized visiting, disorder and dishonorable conduct on the part of all cadets.

There are several marked differences between these and the understanding of last year. Last year the Seniors were supposed to report every breach of rules and regulations, while this year they are required to report only certain trespasses, and to use their moral power on others. The privileges offered to the Class are practically the same as those of last year.

The class passed a resolution to adopt the agreement, and it is now up to every member of the class to carry out his part of it, on his honor. The members of the Senior Class do not want to run around looking for reports, but must report those breaches which they are on honor to report, and therefore they request that underclassmen be very careful about putting themselves in the position to be reported, and that they refrain from stepping over the line of Senior privileges.

WADE HAMPTON SOCIETY

There was no regular program at this society, the time being devoted to the appointing of committees and the receiving of new names for membership. The following men put in application for membership: Messrs. A. F. Lunden, J. Trott, E. T. Bunch, R. B. Bratton, A. S. Hanckel, R. Fitzsimmons, L. M. Lightsey, G. R. Davis, and H. E. Frazier. Messrs. Alford and Price made short extemporaneous speeches on the membership and work of the society in the past and asked for the further support of the members during the present session.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

The meeting was called to order by the President. The chaplain of the society was elected at this meeting. The following are the officers for the present term: President—J. P. Derham. Vice-President—G. C. McDermid. Secretary—M. M. Brice. Treasurer—F. E. Floyd. Chaplain—A. M. Leland.

The reporters for the Agricultural Journal were elected, as follows:

Agronomy—A. S. McCord. Soils—E. W. Black. Botany—W. E. Hunter. Chemistry—H. J. Nimitz. Animal Husbandry—E. W. Long. Horticulture—L. R. Warriner. Dairying—J. A. Britt.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

M. M. Brice, Secretary.

Although Auburn has lost several of last year's varsity, her hat is still in the ring and the Orange and Blue predicts victory.

Y. M. C. A.

On Sunday evening, Oct. 1, Mr. Holmes, secretary of the Greenville Y. M. C. A., delivered a splendid address in the auditorium. The subject of his address was, "What a Military School Tries to Inoculate in its Students."

"The first thing which a military school tries to inoculate in its students," he said, "is courage." He related several instances of college men who had real courage to stand out on the side which was not popular, but which they believed to be right.

The next principle was that of obedience. He urged his audience to pay obedience to the voice of their conscience. He also urged loyalty to our College, and to our home and parents as well. Lessons of honor and self-sacrifice are also taught by military schools. These principles should also be applied to our every day life.

REV. McCaul AT Y. M. C. A.

On last Sunday night, Rev. T. V. McCaul, pastor of the Clemson College Baptist Church, made a splendid address in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.

The subject of his address was that of personal christian work. He told of how J. D. Rockefeller, Jr., said that he could never speak to groups of men about God, until one day he was talking to a small crowd of newsboys on the street, and he became aware of a Silent Partner. Mr. McCaul then urged us to try to feel the presence of this Silent Partner, who is always near when we need Him.

"God cannot convert a soul without that soul's consent; He can create a world, but cannot recreate a soul without human aid," was a striking truth presented to us. He then outlined the opportunity which we have before us this week, in the revival services to be conducted here, and urged the Christians of the community to do personal work wherever possible.

MR. A. C. HARTE LECTURES ON EUROPEAN CONDITIONS

On last Friday evening it was the privilege of a large number of cadets as well as visitors to hear Mr. Harte, leader of the Y. M. C. A. work in the war-prisons of Europe, speak in the College chapel.

He began by saying that he was before us in behalf of over forty million soldiers in the trenches of Europe, and over twenty million more who had been either killed, wounded or captured since the war began. In just a few words he outlined the beneficial effects which this great war will have upon the countries of Europe. It is uniting the people of the various countries as nothing else could do. Many instances were related to show that every man, as well as the women left at home, have but one thought—that of doing all they can for their country.

A group of German students, he stated, attempted to justify the war upon the grounds of its unifying influences and hardening effects, causing the citizens to become less egotistic. "Is there not a moral equivalent of war, and if so why cannot the United States demonstrate this to the warring nations of Europe?" was one of his striking questions.

Mr. Harte stated that he had been in war-prisons for almost two years, and fully understood the conditions and needs of the occupants. There are many university students among the prisoners, and they especially appreciate anything which we do for them, and accept it as an act of kindness.

He said that he had seen no authorized punishment of any of the prisoners, except by way of retaliation, that the authorities were not cruel by premeditation nor orders. This he proved by citing the privileges and concessions given to the Young Men's Christian Association. This association has gone into the warring countries of Europe; and in their prisons and at "the front," has done much to alleviate the sufferings of the poor soldiers. Not only have they been allowed to do this work, but in many instances the Association has received the liberal support of the government, as well as the Royal Family.

He laid stress upon the great opportunity which we—the students of North America—have before us at this time, and concluded his address by saying that we could do nothing better to promote international friendship, than to assist in the great work which the Y. M. C. A. of North America is doing among the soldiers of Europe.

Y. M. C. A.

The first meeting of the College year was held on Sunday evening, September 24. At this meeting various members who attended the Blue Ridge Conference last June spoke on the different phases of the Conference.

Mr. J. C. Littlejohn made a short speech on the leaders of this great work. He told of the renowned men who were brought to Blue Ridge each year to train the Y. M. C. A. workers gathered there. "The very best in the world are to be found there," he said.

Cadet B. O. Williams outlined the daily schedule. The day was entirely filled with work and pleasure. Bible classes, mission study, addresses filled the morning, while the afternoon was given over to different kinds of athletics, mountain climbing, and hikes.

Cadet W. H. Bryant talked briefly on the spirit of Blue Ridge. He said that the things which impressed him most were the sense of absolute honesty, the absence of profanity, and the congeniality of the delegates.

Each speaker emphasized the fact that they never spent a more pleasant and profitable ten days than at Blue Ridge. All said that the trip was more than worth any one's time and money.

Mr. Holtzendorff, assistant general secretary, then outlined the Promotion Committee Plan, by which the student affairs of the association are to be run this year. He stated that in brief, this is a comprehensive unification of all the committees. This committee will facilitate the work and keep the members, as well as the other students, in much closer touch with the work of the association.

Cadet J. B. Dick, Bible Study leader, briefly reviewed the work for last year, and outlined this year's plan of work. "The percentage of voluntary attendance at the Bible classes for all of last year," he stated, "was 86 per cent." It is to be hoped that even this good showing is to be improved upon this year.

CALHOUN LITERARY SOCIETY

The first meeting of the Calhoun Literary Society took place on Friday night with a large percentage of the old members back and a good number of new men.

The Society was called to order by Mr. D. E. Monroe, President, and led in prayer by Mr. S. W. Graham. An interesting program had been prepared for the occasion. Mr. W. L. Austin, the declaimer, chose for his subject, "The Death of Lafayette." Mr. J. W. Wofford gave an oration on "The benefits of Literary Society work to a College man." Mr. W. H. Purdy was joker for the evening. The subject for debate was, "Resolved, That the action taken by President Wilson to avert the railroad strike, was right." The affirmative was upheld by Messrs J. B. Faust and J. M. Bates, and the negative defended by Messrs. L. A. Philpot and H. Walker. The judges, Messrs. Blackwell, Purdy and Walker, decided in favor of the affirmative.

After the regular program, the installation of new members took place. The following new members were taken into the society: Messrs. H. C. Walker, L. A. Hamilton, J. L. Lee, D. G. McMillan, C. R. Ford, W. D. Lawton, J. B. Rowell, J. F. Hunter, W. L. Huet, and R. C. Copealnd.

Clemson Agricultural College

A young man can make no better investment than in a technical education. Viewed merely as a matter of business, even if he has to borrow the money at interest, he will find that his increased earning capacity perhaps even the first year after graduation will be sufficient to repay the loan. It is a poor business policy to wait to earn the money necessary to pay for an education with an earning capacity only one-half or one-third that of an educated man. Every year of untrained, uneducated labor represents a direct financial loss. Every boy of ability and ambition whose parents are unable to pay for his education, should get some friend to indorse his note at the bank and begin preparation that will make for greater earning capacity and a fuller life. There is no time to lose. The world is looking for men of large ability and is willing to pay for them. Already there is a surplus of the one-horsepower variety.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND AGRICULTURE

One of the largest and best equipped Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges in the South. 1,544 acres of land. Value of plant over $1,300,000. Over 120 teachers, officers and assistants. Enrollment of over 800. Every county in South Carolina represented. 13 Degree Courses. 4 Short Courses. 26 Departments of Instruction. New and Modern buildings, equipment and sanitation. Over $100,000 expended in public service.

VALUE OF A TECHNICAL COLLEGE EDUCATION

A college education is no longer a luxury of the rich, but more a necessity of the poor boy whose parents can give him little or nothing to start on. In earning capacity, it represents at the outset a capital of from $15,000 to $30,000, depending upon the energy, character and personality of the possessor, and the capital increases with every year of its efficient use.

There never was a time in the history of the world when expert knowledge was so much in demand, so indispensable to individual success, and so highly compensated. For the untrained await the positions of low wages, long hours and poverty.

Clemson College brings within the reach of every boy in South Carolina the benefits and possibilities of a technical education. The way is provided whereby, if he have the ambition and capacity for knowledge, he need not continue in ignorance. Here, at a cost lower than at any similar institution, can a young man obtain an education that will prepare him for self-sustaining, self-respecting citizenship.

W. M. RIGGS, President.
